To whom it may concern:

TestAmerica Laboratories, Inc. d/b/a Eurofins TestAmerica (Seattle) has developed many Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) for use in its analytical laboratory business. Eurofins TestAmerica considers these SOPs to be its proprietary information and each SOP contains a Copyright Information statement that purports to limit the use of the SOP by outside parties to the evaluation of Eurofins TestAmerica's capabilities in the context of the performance of analytical services for that outside party.

Eurofins TestAmerica recognizes that from time to time a consultant or regulatory agency must review Eurofins TestAmerica's SOPs in the course of evaluating whether Eurofins TestAmerica's procedures merit accreditation in the agency's regulatory programs. We also recognize that such evaluations are in the public interest and that applicable regulations may require that Eurofins TestAmerica's SOPs be posted for public viewing. Therefore, Eurofins TestAmerica hereby authorizes the consultant or agency to which this letter is addressed to post Eurofins TestAmerica's SOP document(s) on the consultant's or agency's website or otherwise make them available to the public; however, this authorization does not extend to further uses of the SOP(s) by any public user. The posted SOP document(s) must contain the original Copyright Information statement, and all public users will be expected to abide by the Copyright Information statement prohibiting further reproduction or publication and limiting use to evaluation purposes only.

Any questions regarding this authorization to publish may be directed to:
